

Alexis

Alexis moved to Ayenee from Tenaria at some point in 1997. The Mausoleum served as her introduction to the forums, which is where she spent much of her time while not actively role-playing in the chatrooms. She would serve as a super-moderator for several forums until 2004, when the resignation of Anna and Daelan led to her being selected as the new senior administrator. Due to a combination of real-world issues and stress, she would pass the torch in less than a year and return to her position as a senior moderator. She held this position until her departure from Ayenee some years later.
