

Midnight Dragon

The Midnight Dragons are mysteriously powerful creatures rarely seen, though they are said to guard highly coveted riches and treasures.

Little is known of them, but like many dragons of Ayenee, they are born from eggs and mature slowly over many hundreds of years. They are deep purple in color with great appendage-like wings and a whip-like tail. There are a few small horn nubs as well as a long one in the center that fades to sky blue, which is the color of the wings and ears of the dragon.
